Perhaps it's about my son; when you go intc morrow, try to set* all the pajx^rs, and read them

April tJtl. You English are aristocrats. Y great distance between yourselves and the popol formed all men equal. It was always my cus amongst the soldiers and the rabble, to con them, hear their little histories, and speak them. This I found to be of the greatest benefi

Mai/ ttd. Onee for all, Admiral, I am bound what I think. With you English a foreigner i dog; one can expect neither help nor politcne There was a botanist here, who had seen my w child, and he wan forbidden to give me any ne^ he in tvcbig prosecuted because he gave my v of mv sou's hair! If Hudson Lowe asks to see refuse!

5th. Yes, I tasted happiness as First Con time tjf my marriage, of the birth of the Kinj hut I WHS not quite secure then. Perhaps Til (jH-.st) moment; 1 had had difiiculties, wor among others, ami I was victorious, imposii with emperors- and kings to court me! Pet mor»* after my victories in Italy; what enthu.* cheers for the liberator of Italy! At twenty-![1]